A écouter

In 1987, Congress declared March as National Women's History Month in perpetuity. A special Presidential Proclamation is issued every year which honors the extraordinary achievements of American women.

It highlights the contributions of women to events in history and contemporary society.

Conferences take place at many universities hosted by women for the students . There are also exhibitions held at museums. Schools coordinate many activities about women around the world and the history that they have made.

Here is a song for young kids : I Am a Girl! Women's History Month for Kids, International Women's Day Girl Power Song

Rosie Riveter

Rosie the Riveter is a cultural icon of World War II, representing the women who worked in factories and shipyards during World War II, many of whom produced munitions and war supplies. These women sometimes took entirely new jobs replacing the male workers who joined the military. Rosie the Riveter is used as a symbol of American feminism and women's economic power. ( Wikipedia )
