

in the United States of America

What is Halloween?

- Halloween is a holiday celebrated in many parts of the world. It is particularly popular in the United States, especially among children.

When is Halloween?

- Halloween is celebrated on October 31st of every year.

What do you do on Halloween?

- Children dress up in costumes and go door to door asking for candy. They usually say “Trick or treat!”

- You can also play games, such as bobbing for apples.

- Some people decide to cause mischief on Halloween and vandalize property. One popular tradition is to “T.P.” someone’s home by covering it in toilet paper.

- Many university students have parties on Halloween night.

- Many people carve jack-o-lanterns out of pumpkins to leave on their porches or yards.

- Interesting fact: The National Confectioners Association reported in 2005 that 80 percent of American adults planned to give out candy to trick-or-treaters, and that 93 percent of children planned to go trick-or-treating.

